

 BECOMING
KINGS AND QUEENS INC.

We are back and ready to LEAD!

NOW FOR A WORD FROM OUR FOUNDER...

Over the last 6 months, I have experienced health and life issues (as I am sure everyone has) that caused me to pause on pursuing Becoming Kings and Queens' mission. But God is GREAT and I am proud to announce that all health and life issues are resolved and I am EXCITED to carry Becoming Kings and Queens' mission to the community!

I have had ample time to pray and think about the direction that we are going in and the cause we are committed to. Becoming Kings and Queens' mission is to be instrumental in creating leaders in the next generation. We believe that we have been called to help bridge the gap between the persona we see in the media, on tv and online, and the lives that we live, every day. We understand that leadership must be taught to avoid an entire generation of followers, who are unable to think for themselves.

By creating a positive and lasting impact on the upcoming generation, we will produce young adults who are resilient, passionate, confident, and accountable. Through our charity and volunteer work, we will help shape young leaders and ensure they understand empathy, humility and are emotionally intelligent.

I want to personally thank each and every one of you for your participation, prayers and patience.
