

BECOMING KINGS AND QUEENS INC.

2022 is Over!!

Happy New Year Eve, BKQ Readers!

We are so excited to be here, at the end of 2022, together with you all. This year has shown us a lot: a lot of trials, challenges, and tribulations. By grace and mercy, we got through it, and now here we stand, on the cusp of a new year- that is full of excitement, possibilities, and opportunities.

As I sit and reflect on the last 12 months, I am constantly reminded of our strength. As I realize our challenges did not change us- we are still standing strong and will continue to promote the building of leadership in our youth and children. Our obstacles did not ostracize us. We have built lasting relationships with community mentors, who have encouraged and motivated us. Our tribulations did not trip us up, we have grown and persevered through our trials and have become adaptive and resourceful.

I want to thank 2022. For it showed us that we are stronger than we ever thought we were. It showed us that we are flexible and can adapt to any situation and circumstances and still be victorious. 2022 showed us that it came to confront our insecurities, our fears and show that we were made to succeed- we were made to BECOME KINGS AND QUEENS.

What's inside our latest issue:
