BKQ Year in Hindsight

As we speed straight ahead toward 2023, we realize how fleeting time is, and the importance of making the most of the last quarter of 2022. October marks the beginning of a time of reflection, as we look back over the year to identify and acknowledge our strengths, weaknesses, triumphs, and mistakes.

As I look back over the year, "SUPPORTIVE" is the word that comes to mind for how BKQ has operated over the last 10 months. We assisted other organizations in their efforts and events. We collaborated with other groups to bring a STEM Summer Camp from vision to manifestation and completion. We also brought a huge volunteer effort to several events that were hosted by other organizations.
